

Brief Contents

List of Illustrations	xix
Acknowledgements	xxii
Introduction	1
Part I: Understanding Early Childhood Studies	9
1 Studying early childhood	11
2 Early childhood in a global context	30
3 Some theories of child development	49
Part II: Understanding Child Development: Supporting the Unique Child	73
4 Physical development – the interplay of body and brain	75
5 Cognitive development	99
6 Socialisation, language and play	122
7 Emotional and moral development	147
Part III: In the Best Interests of the Child: Shaping Children's Lives	171
8 Children and families in context	173
9 Representations of childhood	198
10 Early education	220
11 Fostering creativity	244

Part IV: Children in Society: Every Child Matters	261
12 Early childhood social policy	263
13 Diversity and inclusion	288
14 Health and well-being	313
Part V: The Children's Workforce: Professional Practice	337
15 Professional practice for early childhood	339
16 Taking the lead in early years professional practice	362
17 Building a sustainable future	381
Part VI: Research in Early Childhood: Seeing Children Differently	397
18 Understanding young children through observation and assessment	399
19 Doing early childhood research	418
Index	440