

Table of Contents

Introduction

Boris Stojkovski

I

The Importance of Ottoman-era Travelogues for the Reconstruction of the Roman Road Network in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Gligor Samardžić, Goran Popović

1

The Spiritual Connections and the Cult of Jerusalem in the Works of Two Monks from the Rača Monastery

Nada N. Savković

17

Canonical Visitations as Special Travel Sources (Based on the Catholic Visitations of the Uh County in the Eighteenth Century)

Vavrinec Žeňuch

39

Sauveur Lusignan's Epistolary Accounts of His Travels as a Historical Source on the Balkans at the End of the Eighteenth Century

Persida Lazarević Di Giacomo

57

Adventurers, Agents, and Soldiers: British Travel Writers in Bosnia and Herzegovina (1844 – 1856)

Radovan Subić

73

Travelling through the "Forgotten" Past:
The Journeys of Pavle Stamatović in their Broader Pan-Slavic Context

Dušan J. Ljuboja

99

Cruising Between the Past and the Future:
Danube Travel Writings and the Self-Representation of the Serbian National Movement in the 1860s

Miklós Tömöry

131

Poetry as Vision: "Mont Blanc" by Shelley

Miriam Sette

149

Pavle Sofrić and His Travelogue In Hilandar

Svetlana Tomin

163

The Judiciary of the Principality of Serbia
in Foreign Travel Memoirs (1825–1865)

Uroš Stanković

183

Geographical Itineraries and Political-Social Paths
in Amīn al-Rihānī's Journeys

Elvira Diana

201

Sights of China: Markers of Otherness in Polish and Serbian Travel Writings (1842-1949)

Tomasz Ewertowski

217

Serbia Is Not Siberia: The French on Serbia and the Serbs at the Turn of the Nineteenth into the Twentieth Century

Aleksandra Kolaković

235

VARIA: MODERN PERSPECTIVES ON TODAY'S RAILWAYS

The Railway Station of Timișoara in Serbian Sources (1863-1919)

Jovana Kasaš

253

The Hungarian Railways in the Humanities

Vivien Sándor

267