

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Introduction	1
1 Human rights and security in the COVID-19 era	3
BEN STANFORD, STEVE FOSTER, AND CARLOS ESPALIÚ BERDUD
PART I
Theoretical and practical challenges for human rights	13
2 COVID-19 and constitutional tensions: conflicts between the state and the governed	15
TONY MEACHAM
3 Human rights in times of emergency: COVID-19 taking the United Kingdom into uncharted territory	35
BEN STANFORD AND STEVE FOSTER
4 2020: Human rights in Spain or the end of a legal guarantee: a constitutional crisis	53
JUAN CAYÓN PEÑA AND CARLOS ESPALIÚ BERDUD
5 Managing a pandemic: the securitisation of health and the challenge for fundamental freedoms	72
GRACIA ABAD QUINTANAL
6 Guaranteeing migrants' rights in a time of pandemics: the Portuguese exception	90
SUSANA FERREIRA AND TERESA RODRIGUES

PART 2

Threats to personal, collective, and global security 113

- 7 Tax in reverse: financial support and social security during COVID-19 115

LUKE D. GRAHAM AND STUART MACLENNAN

- 8 Subjects of surveillance: human security and law in the wake of COVID-19 134

MONICA INGBER

- 9 The future of the European Strategy for Data: impact analysis from the COVID-19 pandemic 152

LUIS A. GARCÍA-SEGURA

- 10 Analysing the use of technology in the fight against COVID-19: a look at China, Taiwan, South Korea, Iceland, and Israel from the perspective of 'Technologies for Freedom' 174

ALBERTO PRIEGO

- 11 Virus-laden ships: international rights and obligations of coastal states regarding foreign ships feared to be carrying an infectious disease 194

WARWICK GULLETT

- 12 The New Cold War and the (uneven) implications of COVID-19 for international security: the cases of Italy and the UK 212

ZENO LEONI

- Index* 232