

Contents

List of Plates, Figures and Tables	ix
List of Boxes and Case Studies	xviii
Acknowledgements	xxiii
Foreword	xxiv
Introduction	xxiv
List of Acronyms and Abbreviations	xxvi
Part I
Setting the Context	1
Chapter 1
Natural Heritage	3
Graeme L. Worboys and Colin Winkler
The evolution of global environments	3
The physical environment	4
Biological diversity	12
Biogeographical realms	18
Global terrestrial biomes	28
WWF ecoregions and Global 200	34
Conservation International's biodiversity hotspots	37
Further reading	40
Chapter 2
Social Context	41
Michael Lockwood and Ashish Kothari
Socio-cultural context	42
Economic context	51
Political context	63
Protected areas and 'the new paradigm'	67
Further reading	72
Chapter 3
Global Protected Area Framework	73
Michael Lockwood
Institutions working for protected areas	73
Conventions	79
Types of protected areas	82
Extent of the world's protected areas	96
Further reading	98
Chapter 4
Values and Benefits	101
Michael Lockwood
Value language and classification	101
Intrinsic value	104
On-site goods and services	105
Off-site goods and services	109
Community value (non-material)	112
Individual value (non-material)	113
Further reading	115
Chapter 5
Governance of Protected Areas	116
Grazia Borrini-Feyerabend, Jim Johnston and Diane Pansky
Types of governance for protected areas	117
Governance roles of different actors	123
Quality of protected area governance	134
Governance awareness and innovations	140
Further reading	144

Chapter 6		Managing indirect threats	235
Process of Management	146	Managing direct threats	246
Graeme L. Worboys and Colin Winkler		Management principles	259
Management functions	146	Further reading	261
Planning	147
Organizing	150	Chapter 10
Leading	156	Obtaining, Managing and
Controlling	161	Communicating Information	262
Managing for performance	161	Terry De Lacy, Juliet Chapman, Michelle
Further reading	163	Whitmore and Graeme L. Worboys
		Scope of information needs	263
Chapter 7		Data and information collection
Developing Capacity	164	methods	266
John Hough		Storage, retrieval and analysis	272
Capacity levels	165	Supporting institutions and
Capacity for what, capacity for who,		partnerships	276
and what capacity?	166	Communication	279
Assessing capacity needs	170	Management principles	290
Developing capacities	173	Further reading	291
Progress and standards	182
Sustaining capacity: Becoming a		Chapter 11
learning organization	183	Management Planning	292
Further reading	184	Michael Lockwood
		Approaches to planning	293
Part II		Preparing protected area management
Principles and Practice	193	plans	302
		Overview of good planning practice	322
Chapter 8		Management principles	326
Establishing Protected Areas	195	Further reading	327
Mohamed I. Bakarr and Michael Lockwood
The need for comprehensive global		Chapter 12
systems	195	Finance and Economics	328
National and bioregional reserve		Michael Lockwood and Carlos E. Quintela
systems	200	Financing protected areas	328
Systematic reserve selection methods	208	Pricing services and facilities	338
Planning processes for protected		Demonstrating economic benefit	348
area establishment	212	Management principles	355
Management principles	218	Further reading	358
Further reading	222
		Chapter 13
Chapter 9		Managing Staff, Finances and Assets	359
Threats to Protected Areas	223	Graeme L. Worboys and Colin Winkler
Graeme L. Worboys, Colin Winkler and		Human resource management	359
Michael Lockwood		A principled organization	366
Classification of threats	224	Financial management	367
Managing threats: Underlying causes	224	Asset management	372
Managing threats: Planning and		Management principles	373
procedures	228	Further reading	376

Chapter 14		Chapter 18
Sustainability Practice and		Incident Management	474
Sustainable Use	377	Graeme L. Worboys and Colin Winkler
Juliet Chapman, Terry De Lacy and Michelle Whitmore		Organizations with incident
Sustainability and protected area		management responsibilities	474
organizations	378	Managing incident responses	475
Sustainable resource use, primarily in		Incident control systems	479
Category V and VI protected areas	389	Managing fire incidents	483
Management principles	405	Managing wildlife incidents	488
Further reading	405	Managing incidents arising from natural phenomena	490
Chapter 15		Managing incidents arising from armed
Operations Management	406	conflict	494
Graeme L. Worboys and Colin Winkler		Management principles	494
Planning for operations	407	Further reading	496
Operations implementation	418
Management principles	419	Chapter 19
Further reading	420	Tourism and Recreation	497
		Terry De Lacy and Michelle Whitmore
Chapter 16		Global tourism and environmental
Natural Heritage Management	421	performance	497
Jamie Kirkpatrick and Kevin Kiernan		The tourism industry	504
Principles of, and approaches to, natural		Visitor management models	506
heritage management	422	Visitor service and support	513
Managing water	426	Visitor monitoring	517
Managing geodiversity	430	Interpretation of protected area values	517
Managing fire	435	Local community involvement in tourism	521
Managing weeds and introduced		Management principles	522
pathogens	438	Further reading	526
Managing animals	441
Managing the impact of people on		Chapter 20
natural environments	444	Collaboratively Managed Protected
Managing the natural aesthetic resource	445	Areas	528
Restoration and rehabilitation	446	Ashish Kothari
Management principles	447	Common features of co-managed
Further reading	447	protected areas	528
		Types of co-managed protected areas	534
Chapter 17		Continuing challenges	541
Cultural Heritage Management	448	The way forward for collaboratively
Jane Lennon		managed protected areas	544
Significance of cultural heritage in		Management principles	547
protected areas	449	Further reading	548
Cultural sites and landscapes	452
Conserving indigenous heritage	462	Chapter 21
Conserving historic sites	467	Community Conserved Areas	549
Management principles	472	Ashish Kothari
Further reading	473	Range and significance of community
		conserved areas	549
		Legal and policy context	562