

Contents

1 Professional Supervision: An Introduction.	1
Introduction.	1
Professional Supervision in Professional Social Work.	1
Motivation for Writing This Book	3
Rationale for and Significance of Professional Supervision in Social Work.	5
Concept, Nature, Types, and the Main Features of Professional Supervision	6
Professional Supervision for Student Social Workers	10
Post-qualification Practice Supervision	10
Supervision by the Line-Management/Administration.	11
Group Supervision	12
Peer Supervision	12
Supervision in the Tertiary Sector.	13
Independent Supervision.	13
Mentoring	14
Coaching	15
Some Basic Principles.	15
Mode of Supervision.	15
The Role of Professional Bodies.	16
Objectives of the Book	19
Research Methods Followed.	19
Organization of the Book	20
Conclusion and Summary	23
References.	23
2 Changes and Challenges in Social Work: Implications for Professional Supervision.	27
Introduction.	27
Social Work as a Global Profession	27
The Promise and Politics of Social Work	29

Changes and Challenges	33
Colonization, Neocolonization, and Decolonization	33
Deprofessionalization	35
Populism, Nationalism, and Welfare Chauvinism	38
Digitalization and Online Trends	40
The Sustainable Development Goals, Climate Change, and Disasters	42
Implications for Professional Supervision in Social Work	43
Conclusion and Summary	44
References	45
3 Contexts of Supervision: Organizations and Practice Settings	49
Introduction	49
Organizational Context	50
Government Organizations	50
Non-government Organizations (NGOs)	53
Social Work Practice Settings	59
Social Protection and Security	60
Health and Hospitals	60
Private Practice	61
Child Welfare and Protection	62
Family/Domestic Violence	62
School Social Work	63
Corrections	63
Community	64
Research Leading to Advocacy and Policy	65
Rural and Remote	65
Line-Management Versus Non-line-Management
Professional Supervision in Organizational and Practice Settings	66
Conclusion and Summary	68
References	68
4 Models of Professional Supervision in Social Work	71
Introduction	71
Purpose- and Goal-Based Models	72
Path-Based Models	75
A Line-Management Supervision Model	75
A Non-line-Management Supervision Model	75
A Mixed Model of Line and Non-line-Management Supervision	76
A Contract Model of Supervision	76
A Model of Supervision in Private Practice	77
Digital/Online Supervision Models	78
Casework, Clinical Practice, and Therapy-Oriented Supervision Models	78
A Reflective Learning Model of Supervision	79
Peer Group Supervision Models	80

- Group Supervision Models 81
- A Model of Systemic Supervision 82
- Portfolio Model of Supervision 84
- An Appreciative Supervision Model 85
- A Cultural Competency Supervision Model 87
- A Critical Conversations Model of Supervision 87
- Feminist Supervision Models 89
- The Integration of Purpose and Path-Based Models 89
- A Comprehensive Model of Social Work Supervision 90
- Evidence-Informed Model of Social Work Supervision 91
- Conclusion and Summary 93
- References 93

- 5 Critical Dilemmas and Challenges in Professional Supervision 99
- Introduction 99
- Line-Management Supervision Versus Non-line-Management (External) Supervision 100
- Difference Between Line-Management and Non-line-Management Professional Supervision 104
- Supervision in Private Practice 106
- Face-to-Face Supervision Versus Digital Supervision 107
- Difference Between Social Workers and Non-social Workers and New and Experienced Supervisees 110
- The Role of Professional Bodies 111
- The Issue of Teaching/Developing Qualities/Character 112
- Conclusion and Summary 113
- References 114

- 6 The Process, Essentials, and Content of Professional Supervision . . . 115
- Introduction 115
- The General Process of Supervision Sessions 115
- Supervisee-Focused Open, Flexible, Informal, and Conversational 116
- Clarification of Expectations 117
- Recapitulating 117
- Structured/Contracted 117
- Supervisee-Led 118
- Two-Way Process 119
- Task/Issue/Goal-Focused 119
- Reflective 120
- Essentials of Professional Supervision 120
- Being Clear at the Beginning 120
- Focus on Practice/Work 121
- Balancing Between Work Issues and Private Issues 121
- Focus on Workplace Context 122
- Focus on Reflection 123

Focus on Positives/Strengths	123
Professional Development	123
Identifying Themes/Issues	124
Focus on Values and Ethics/Links to Professional Ethics.	124
Accountability/Responsibility.	125
Offering Support	125
Being Present/Listening	126
Sharing Own Experience	126
Empathy	127
Relationship and Trust	127
Asking Curious Questions	128
Using Theory, Sharing Resources.	128
The Main Theme or Core Content of Professional Supervision.	129
Self-Care/Safety for the Worker and the Client	129
Maintaining Boundaries	131
Personal Issues	131
Difficulties with and Conflicts Around the Organization	131
Client/Practice Issues	132
Feeling of Inadequacy in Work Performance	133
Critical Reflection.	133
Modeling Values	134
Professional Identity	134
Learning/Training and the Future	135
Conclusion and Summary	135
References.	136
7 Supervisors' Expectations	137
Introduction.	137
Supervisors' Perceptions of Supervisees' Expectations from Supervision	138
Availability, Support, and Respect	138
Space for Ventilation/Debriefing.	139
Have a Plan, Direction, or Advice.	140
Have Answers and Problem-Solving	140
Learn Something More than What They Know	140
Facilitate Reflection	141
Looking for Affirmation	141
Providing a Different Perspective	142
Honest Feedback and Understanding	142
Accountability and Continuity	143
Therapy and Counseling	143
Do Not Know What to Expect	144
Expectations of Supervisors from Supervisees.	145
Come Prepared and Bring Agenda Items for the Meeting	145
Follow-Up from the Previous Meeting	146
Talk About Issues from Various Angles	146

Discuss Ethical Dilemmas	147
Aware of Issues, Disclose Concerns, Defend Practice, and Disagree. . .	148
To Be Reflective	148
Vision and Responsibility	149
Take Risks and Have Passion	149
Punctual	150
Take Supervision Seriously and Value It.	150
Tell Truth/Be Honest.	151
Focus on Supervision, Do Not Bring Other Agendas.	151
Link Supervision to Performance Appraisal.	152
Conclusion and Summary	153
References.	154
8 Issues Posed in Professional Supervision	155
Introduction.	155
Issues Supervisees Present in the Supervision	155
Issues Relating to the Organizational Context	155
Issues Relating to Clients/Practice	159
Reflection on Practice	163
Maintaining Boundaries/Rural Context	164
Work Performance Issues	165
Skill Development.	166
Theoretical Frameworks	166
Personal Issues	167
Recognizing Good Work.	168
Conclusion and Summary	168
References.	169
9 Concepts and Theories Employed in Supervision	171
Introduction.	171
Conceptual and/or Theoretical Approaches Used in Supervision.	172
Reflective Practice/Critical Reflection Framework.	172
Adult Learning	173
Kolb's Learning Cycle	174
Task-Focused Instructional Theory.	174
Systems Theory.	175
Kadushin Model/PASE Model	176
Four Domains Approach to Supervision.	177
Middleman and Goldberg's Model/Holistic Model	177
Margaret Morrell's Framework.	178
Postmodernism	179
A Strengths-Based Perspective	179
Anti-oppressive Framework	180
Social Constructionist Approach.	181
Feminist Framework/Gender Perspective	182
Narrative Therapy	182
Family Therapy	183

Sensorimotor Psychotherapy	184
Psychodynamic Lens	185
Cognitive Behavior Therapy	186
Crisis Intervention	186
Supervisee-Led Model	187
Family Approach	188
Best Practice	188
Eclectic Approach	189
Conclusion and Summary	190
References	191
10 The Use of Practice Wisdom in Supervision	193
Introduction	193
Use of Practice Wisdom by Supervisors	194
Experience	194
Practice Wisdom Statements	198
Supervision Practice Principles or Techniques	204
Conclusion and Summary	208
References	209
11 The Use of Virtues or Qualities in Supervision	211
Introduction	211
Social Workers' Qualities Perceived by Supervisors	212
Finding Their Own Answers/Self-Determination	212
Strengths-Based Thinking	212
Being Non-judgmental, Human Rights, Empowerment	213
Honesty, Accountability, and Trust	213
Patience, Tolerance, Understanding, and Care	213
Compassion	214
Good Relationships/Links to the Wider World	214
Shared Learning	214
Inherent Personal Traits and Characteristics	214
Developing Supervisees' Virtues/Qualities in Supervision	215
Using Strengths of Supervisees	215
Be Open and Honest and Non-judgmental	217
Experiential Learning, Reflection, Non-judgmental, Good Listening, and Observing	218
Developing Clarity About Issues and Decision-Making	218
Affirming Braveness	219
Warmth and Power	220
Reassuring/Building Confidence	221
Humor	221
Gentleness	222
Capacity to Face Challenges and Make Difficult Decisions	223
Conclusion and Summary	224
References	225

12	Developing Supervisees' Being	227
	Introduction	227
	Supervisee Being as a Person and Professional Social Worker	228
	Person and Professional Being Are Intertwined	228
	Focusing Only on the Professional Being Is Mechanical	229
	Essential to Integrate the Personal and Professional	229
	Gray Area	230
	Developing Being of Supervisees	231
	Role Modeling Oneself	232
	Talk About Supervisees' Qualities	232
	Creating a Safe Environment	233
	Encouragement to Discuss Discordant Views	233
	Discussing Family Value Conflicts and Influences	234
	Demonstrating Care	234
	Comparing Previous Situations	235
	Linking to the Code of Ethics and Career Goal Planning	235
	Weighing Up Between Legal Being and Human Being	236
	Assigning the Case that Goes Well with the Worker	237
	Preventing Core Value Conflict Situations and Settings	237
	Attending to Personal and Professional Issues	238
	Seeking Additional External Support	239
	Conclusion and Summary	240
	References	241
13	Action for Professional Supervision	243
	Introduction	243
	Professional Supervision and Voices and Virtues of Social Workers ..	244
	Tacit Development of Virtues/Qualities in Supervision	248
	Limitations of the Study and Future Research	249
	The Main Trends in the Dynamics of Professional Supervision	250
	Mainly Focused on Accredited Training and Clinical Practice	251
	Inconsistency in Organizations and Line-Management Approaches ..	251
	Influence of Neoliberalism and New Managerialism	252
	Private Practice and External Supervision	252
	Professional Bodies and Supervision Standards	253
	Organizations and Practitioners Without Professional Supervision ..	253
	Professional Supervision as an Emerging Area of Practice	254
	The Need for Professional Supervision	254
	Coordinated Action for Professional Supervision	255
	References	257
	Index	259