

Contents

- Acknowledgments 9
- Introduction 11
1. Can You Help Me Help My Son? Looking at Grief and Loss from a New Perspective 19
  2. The Beginning of a Lifelong Conversation: Communicating Facts, Feelings, and Faith 35
  3. What Can I Do? Helping Children, Loved Ones, and Yourself in the Grieving Process 51
  4. The Facts about Death: The D-Word and What You Can Do about It 69
  5. Grandpa Did Not Go Away on a Long Trip: Telling Your Child the Truth and Avoiding Religious Euphemisms 83
  6. If You Weren't Grieving, Something Would Really Be Wrong: Good Grief for Children 105

7. A Bridge of Hope: Building Heaven in Your Child's Heart 123
  8. Homeland Security: Dealing with Fears of Death, Terrorism, and War 143
  9. Will There Be Different Colors in Heaven? Honest Questions from Inquisitive Kids 159
  10. Mommy's Very Sick: Living and Dying with a Terminal Illness 177
  11. Nobody Gets Outta Here Alive: Talking with Your Teenager 193
  12. Making Meaning, Making Memories: Celebrating Life with Children 209
- Epilogue 225
- Appendix A: Questions and Answers about the Funeral Process 227
- Appendix B: Grief Resources 241
- Notes 251