

CONTENTS

List of contributors	x
Introduction: dictators and autocrats: a global phenomenon Klaus Larres	xvi
Abstracts	xxv
PART I
The notorious three	1
1 Joseph Stalin: autocrat par excellence (1878–1953) Hiroaki Kuromiya	3
2 Adolf Hitler: from democracy to dictatorship (1889–1945) Eric Kurlander	19
3 Mao Zedong: communist Party dictatorship (1893–1976) Covell F. Meyskens	38
PART II
Pathbreaking autocrats of the twentieth century	53
4 Fidel Castro: from grassroots dictatorship to Communist autocracy (1926–2016) Lillian Guerra	55

5	Augusto Pinochet: the emergence of one-man rule in Chile (1915–2006) Patricio Silva	71	15	The Assad Dynasty: quo vadis Damascus? (Hafiz: 1930–2000; Bashar: born 1965) Moshe Ma'oz	249
6	Robert Mugabe: ruthless authoritarian who preferred democratic clothing (1924–2019) Richard Bourne	91	16	Kim Jong Un: rise to power and leadership style (born 1984) Rachel Minyoung Lee	265
7	Joseph Kabila: the “Raïs” of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (born 1971) Charles Tshimanga	106	17	Abdel Fattah el-Sisi: the one and only Egyptian dictator (born 1954) Robert Springborg	282
8	Hugo Chavez: was he an autocrat? (1954–2013) Gabriel Hetland	120	18	Prayuth Chan-o-Cha: from the barracks to the ballot box (born 1954) Pasuth Thothevesansuk	301
9	Lee Kuan Yew: autocracy, elections, and capitalism (1923–2015) Michael D. Barr	141	19	Mohammed bin Salman Al Saud (a.k.a. “MBS”): king in all but name (born 1985) Christopher M. Davidson	319
PART III			20	Viktor Orbán and János Kádár: a post-Communist and a Communist autocrat in Hungary. A comparative analysis (Kádár: 1912–1989; Orbán: born 1963) András Bozóki	346
Twenty-first-century autocrats: the major powers		155	21	Recep Tayyip Erdoğan: from “illiberal democracy” to electoral authoritarianism (born 1953) Howard Eissenstat	367
10	Vladimir Putin: Russia’s neo-patrimonial façade democracy (born 1952) Allen C. Lynch	157	22	Rodrigo Duterte: macho populism and authoritarian practice (born 1945) Nicole Curato and Yvan Ysmael Yonaha	384
11	Xi Jinping: the rise of an authoritarian leader (born 1953) Johnny Erling	174	23	Jair Bolsonaro: beyond the pale, above the fray (born 1955) Andre Pagliarini	399
12	Narendra Modi: elected authoritarian (born 1950) Ian Hall	191		Index	414
13	Donald J. Trump: the authoritarian style in American politics (born 1946) Klaus Larres	204	PART IV
Twenty-first-century autocrats: other influential autocrats		233	Twenty-first-century autocrats: other influential autocrats
14	Ali Hosseini Khamenei: routinizing revolution in Iran (born 1939) Kjetil Selvik	235	14	Ali Hosseini Khamenei: routinizing revolution in Iran (born 1939) Kjetil Selvik	235