

Contents

The Multifaceted Notion of Time in International Law .....	1
Klara Polackova Van der Ploeg and Luca Pasquet
Constructing and Attributing Meaning to Time in International Law
Lawyers as Creators of Law's Temporal Reality: A Pragmatic Approach to International Law .....	27
Eric Wyler and Arianna Whelan
Human Rights in Time: Temporalization of Human Rights in Historical Representation .....	51
Juhana Mikael Salojärvi
Interstellar Justice Now: Back to the Future of International Law .....	71
Bérénice K. Schramm
Digressing Towards Justice: International Criminal Law's Narrative of Moral Transit Through Violence .....	99
Timothy William Waters
Time in International Lawmaking
How Instant and Universal International Law Is Born and How It Dies: The 1856 Declaration of Paris .....	113
Jan Martin Lemnitzer
Incrementalism in International Lawmaking: The Development of Normative Frameworks of Protection for Forcibly Displaced Persons .....	135
Rob Grace
The Politics of Time in Domestic and International Lawmaking .....	153
Tommaso Soave

Life Cycles of International Law as a Noetic Unity: The Various Times of Law-Thinking .....	175
Thomas Schultz
Time and the Operation of International Law
Time-Traveling Rules of Interpretation: Of 'Time-Will' and 'Time-Bubbles' .....	195
Panos Merkouris
Time and Tide Wait for No One: The Curious Consideration of Time in International Investment Treaty Law .....	221
Robert Howse and Barry Appleton
The Relevant Time for Assessing Jurisdiction and the Ratione Temporis Objection in the Genocide (Croatia v. Serbia) Case .....	237
Lorenzo Palestini
Of Relevant Dates and Political Processes: State Succession and the Dissolution of the Former Yugoslavia .....	263
Asier Garrido-Muñoz
China, Confucian Time and International Law: A Normative and Behavioral Account .....	283
Matthias Vanhullebusch
International Law Between Change and Stability
International Law Through Time: On Change and Facticity of International Law .....	313
Klara Polackova Van der Ploeg
The Development of International Law, Perception, and the Problem of Time .....	335
Gregory Messenger
Change and Adaptation in International Environmental Law: The Challenge of Resilience .....	357
Jaye Ellis
Transformations of International Legal Concepts in Time: Continuity, Discontinuity, Recurrence
The 'Minimum Standard of Treatment' in International Investment Law: The Story of the Emergence, the Decline and the Recent Resurrection of a Concept .....	381
Patrick Dumberry

Peace Agreements Between Rupture and Continuity: Mediating Time in International Law ..... 405
 Philipp Kastner

Overlooking Continuity: National Minorities and ‘Timeless’ Human Rights ..... 421
 León Castellanos-Jankiewicz

Self-determination as Ideology: The Cold War, the End of Empire, and the Making of UN General Assembly Resolution 1514 (14 December 1960) ..... 441
 Victor Kattan