

Contents

1	Learning International Relations	1
1.1	Scope and Aim of This Book	1
1.2	Descriptive Inference	3
1.3	Causal Inference	5
1.4	Deductive Inference	6
1.5	Social Science as a Tough Science	7
1.6	The Multifaceted Nature of Historical Understanding	8
	References	13
2	Basic Principles of International Relations	15
2.1	International Relations: Anarchy and International Society	15
2.2	Basic Principles of International Relations and Four Key Concepts	17
2.3	Multiple Actors and Strategic Interaction	19
2.4	The Prisoner's Dilemma Game as a Typical Interaction	20
2.5	Two Major Lenses	23
	References	28
3	Formation of International Society	29
3.1	Civilization and Inter-Civilization Relations: Governance by Conquest and Governance by Promise	29
3.2	China	30
3.3	Islam	31
3.4	Modern Western Europe and the Current International Society	32
3.5	Models on the Causes of the Establishment of the Modern State: Tilly and Spruyt Models	35
	References	38

4	Imperialism and Democratization of International Society	39
4.1	Establishment of Modern Western Order and Balance of Power	39
4.2	Establishment of Modern Western Order and Colonialism	41
4.3	Old Diplomacy and New Diplomacy, World War I	43
4.4	Expansion and Democratization of International Society	45
4.5	The People and Diplomacy	46
	References	50
5	Nationalism and Globalization: Today's International Relations	53
5.1	World War II and the United Nations	53
5.2	United Nations and the Bretton Woods System	56
5.3	Cold War	58
5.4	Today	61
	References	65
6	International Political Economy: Trade and Globalization	67
6.1	Historical Development of International Trade	67
6.2	The Ricardian Model and Its Political Implications	69
6.3	Factor of Production Model and Political Implications	71
6.4	New Trade Theory and New-New Trade Theory	71
6.5	Explanation of Domestic Support for Trade Protection According to Economic Models	72
6.6	The Influence of International Organizations and State Actions on Trade	73
	References	78
7	International Political Economy: Currency and Finance	79
7.1	Historical Developments Surrounding International Currency	79
7.2	The Varied Landscape of International Monetary Policy	81
7.3	Trilemma and Political Implications	82
7.4	The Influence of International Organizations on Global Currency and Finance	83
7.5	The Role of Non-State Actors in International Finance	84
	References	87
8	International Political Economy: Poverty and Development Aid, Human Movement, and Refugees	89
8.1	Historical Developments Surrounding Poverty and Development Aid	89
8.2	Historical Developments Concerning Migrants and Refugees	91
8.3	The Political Dynamics Surrounding Aid, Immigration, and Refugee Protection	92

8.4	Dilemma Model for Aid and Immigration and Refugee Protection	95
8.5	The Role of International Organizations and State Actions Regarding Aid, Immigration, and Refugee Protection	96
	References	100
9	Security: Interstate War and Alliances/Coalitions of the Willing	101
9.1	Historical Development of War: Changes in War Views, Imperialism, and Issues	101
9.2	Deterrence: Arms Race and Alliances, Coalitions of the Willing	103
9.3	Security Dilemma	105
9.4	Fearon's Rationalist Explanations for War	107
9.5	Three Peace Theories	109
	References	112
10	Security: Civil War and Terrorism	113
10.1	Historical Development of Civil War	113
10.2	Historical Developments of Terrorism	115
10.3	Considering Civil War and Terrorism Through the Rational Choice Model	116
10.4	International Intervention in Civil Wars and Its Impact	118
10.5	Terrorism and Claims Regarding Terrorism	119
	References	121
11	Security: System Stability and Reconciliation/Relationship Repair Between Nations	123
11.1	The Historical Development of Research on International System Stability	123
11.2	Hegemonic Stability Theory, Constitutional Stability Through International Institutions, G7	124
11.3	Power Transition Theory	127
11.4	Interstate Reconciliation and Relationship Repair	128
11.5	Boundary Between Enemies and Allies	129
	References	134
12	Global Issues: Transboundary Environmental Issues and Global Warming	137
12.1	Historical Development of Global Environmental Issues	137
12.2	The Concept of Regimes and Global Governance	139
12.3	Tragedy of the Commons	142
12.4	Challenges in International Relations Related to Global Warming	143
	References	147

13 Global Issues: The Spread of Human Rights Norms and Domestic Interference	149
13.1 Historical Development of International Human Rights Issues	149
13.2 Why Are Human Rights Not Protected?	152
13.3 The Concept of the Responsibility to Protect	153
13.4 Intervention Through Conditionality	154
13.5 Conflict of Values	155
References	159
14 Global Issues: Technology Innovation and the International Politics of Legitimacy	161
14.1 Historical Developments Surrounding Technology and International Relations	161
14.2 Nuclear Weapons, Landmines, Cluster Bombs	163
14.3 Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS)	165
14.4 Pandemic	166
14.5 Legitimacy in International Politics	167
References	171
15 Research Methods of International Relations	173
15.1 Puzzle or Question	173
15.2 Two “Isms” and Constructivism, Rationalism	175
References	180
Index	183