

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	7
Acknowledgments .....	12
The state of affairs in Sweden and Finland at the end of the 16th century .....	14
The safe harbor — Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth .....	23
1. The refugee registers — circumstances of the creation and their significance .....	27
Lawsuit of the Linköping Riksdag March 8, 1600 .....	28
A List of Swedish-Finnish unit of king's reiters and arquebusiers from July 1600 .....	29
A list of the Hertigh Karls Slaktarebenck from 1617 .....	31
A List from the chancery register of Karl IX for 1609 .....	33
A list prepared in circa 1618 .....	35
2. A strategy of operation and structure of the group .....	37
The Plan .....	37
Swedish Court in exile .....	41
The Baltic Armada .....	49
The War in Livonia .....	62
Propaganda and spy ventures .....	69
Women .....	74
3. Institutions of the Catholic Church .....	79
The Bridgettines Monastery in Gdańsk .....	80
The Jesuit College in Braniewo .....	82
The Kashubian Carthusia .....	86
The Warmia Chapter .....	87
4. Royal Aid .....	89
Salaries from the income of the ports of Gdańsk and Elbląg .....	90

---

Escheats, pastures, taverns, records . . . . .	100
Royal factor Simon Bahr . . . . .	104
5. Returns, assimilation, memories . . . . .	107
The tale of inscriptions and epitaphs . . . . .	113
6. Conclusion . . . . .	119
Appendixes . . . . .	123
State of research and Bibliography . . . . .	227
Index of persons . . . . .	255
Index of geographical names . . . . .	275